About this Business

Founded in March 2025, this profitable and rapidly growing e-commerce store offers a compelling opportunity for investors. Specializing in high-quality skincare and beauty treatments, the brand blends effective, natural formulations with a seamless at-home experience, appealing to a wellness- and results-focused audience.

The business has achieved $631K in total revenue with $227K in net profit and a 36% net margin since launch, showcasing strong financial performance and efficient operations. High margins and repeat purchase potential further strengthen the business model.

The business leverages a focused marketing strategy, including Google Ads, Meta Ads, and high-performing email marketing (18% conversion), to engage a 47K-strong customer base. Operating on a dropshipping model, the brand benefits from low overhead, efficient order processing, and fast product testing.

This is a unique opportunity to acquire a brand-led, high-margin skincare business with a loyal customer base, proven profitability, and multiple paths for growth through marketing expansion, product line extensions, and operational enhancements.
